

Rear: Trendsetters' Alan Doody, Lisa Balslov & Linda Bailie try out their scissors on, front, Marlene Oldfield, Spirit Snyott and Alan Lounds. Photo: Michele McLean

Mane event

Cut-a-thon for Variety Village

East Enders will have a chance to let their hair down and contribute to a good cause during Trendsetter's Cut-A-Thon for Variety Village this Sunday, Sept. 30, at 1003 Kingston Rd.

Shop owner Lisa Balslov will be cutting hair along with two of her employees and all proceeds will go to Variety Village where Balslov works out. Her friend, Spirit Snyott, a paraplegic, also belongs to Danforth Ave. complex which is geared to the needs of the disabled but welcomes able-bodied users. She will wear a mermaid costume to welcome people into Trendsetters for the cut-a-thon.